

Make In India Product

The Mobile Field Hospital is essentially a surgical unit with a fully equipped Field Operation Theatre along with all requisite support services in the form of stand alone units-

Mobile hospitals are available in ISO 20 feet containers the containers and inflatable tents and are composed of steel with a heavy duty profile exterior finish they are modular in nature and can be assembled in various configurations depending on the requirement deals it is designed to be assembled in the following functional units .

A level 2 to 4 hospital having rescue station for emergency medical services and first aid, it is fully equipped with full function field operation theatre along with all requisite support services in the form of anaesthesia equipment ventilatory support recovery room etc it can support all general orthopaedic emergency surgeries and can be undertaken by the surgical team on the field.

Layouts for Military use

16 Bed Forward Surgical Unit

